

Southbound Shows welcomes The EMO Agency as a 2016 Sponsor

Your horse is a valuable asset and a considerable financial investment.

Protecting that investment with equine insurance has been EMO's specialty for more than 30 years.

Why choose EMO?

We are horsemen working for horsemen!

The EMO Agency, Inc., based in Warrenton, Virginia, has earned a reputation for providing horse owners with the highest quality of coverage through A+ rated underwriters, the best customer service, and quick claim settlement.

That's why so many horse owners, trainers, and farm managers nationwide trust their insurance needs to EMO.

EMO currently boasts a variety of equine, farm and liability coverages, with an office staff of 12, nine field agents and three producers to assist clients with all of their equine insurance needs.

EMO is a one-stop shop, where horsemen can find most of their insurance needs all under one roof.

EMO insurance clients live all over the country, from coast-to-coast, and own horses that compete at the highest levels as well as those kept for pleasure and companionship.

In addition, EMO insures horse shows.

So EMO customers can take comfort in knowing that when competing at Patrick Rodes' Southbound Show Management competitions, they and their horses are well covered.

EMO has agents at many of the Southbound Shows to give you quick and effective service on the spot.

It's as easy as 1, 2, 3 ... quote, bind and coverage!

EMO...Ride with the leaders!
